REVIEW OF A PRACTICAL GUIDE TO SHAREPOINT 2013 NO FLUFF JUST PRACTICAL EXERCISES TO ENHANCE YOUR SHAREPOINT 2013 LEARNING

- First, let me say that I was sucked in by the cover of the book so whomever was responsible, hats off to you! The other blunder I made was in seeing the author's name and assume that it was a guy who wrote it. This, it seemed, made the book most interesting, a guy writing about a girl in prep school. So I dove into the book with expectations that just were not met in any way. The only person I can see who would like this book is one who is akin to the lead character. She is a whiney and weak character who just gets more annoying as the book progresses. The only interesting part is when they discuss her furtive attempts at sex. I felt this book was a waste of time as it did nothing to leave the reader with any lingering thoughts. I was just annoyed that I had wasted my time on this book. If you are a teen girl you might enjoy this but that might be a stretch as well. There are better books out there to spend your time on.

- From the first paragraph to the last, this book was nothing short of amazing. The dialogue is real, the characters are all unique, and the insights of Lee Fiora make her an unforgettable character. I recommend this book to everyone.
