REVIEW OF ASTRONOMY TODAY 7TH OR 8TH EDITION PDFSDOCUMENTS2

- Creatively, Susan Vreeland's book is pretty special. Eight stories that move backwards through time that revolve around a Vermeer painting. Through each of the stories the painting manages to evoke particular feelings in each of the narrators, demonstrating the power and allure of art. As much as I appreciated her craftsmanship in the storytelling, the stories themselves left me a little cold. I didn't really have any kind of emotional attachment to any of the characters, so consequently I found myself being more of an observer and less of a participant. Still, it's a fast moving and easy read, and for people interested in art and artists, this would probably be an enjoyable read.

- The newest I have is Black Notice. I always look forward to a scarpetta/cornwell book & have never been disappointed.
