REVIEW OF THE VIA DOLOROSA

- I used this book with my sixth grade class to explore our theme of ancient heroes. Nye's retelling kept my class totally entranced with Beowulf and his adventures. Although it does not follow the original it does introduce young students to the hero, and those students who were more enthralled read other versions. When Nye's retelling is compared with the original it opens up discussions...even for sixth graders!!

- So cute. I've always loved this rhyme anyhow. The pictures are sweet and colorful, and I love the picture-summary of all the actions at the end, particularly for children not yet able to attend to pictures for long. It's a great warm-up for my speech and language sessions with toddlers and preschoolers with lots of receptive and expressive language opportunities, imitation, and improvisation. Nice job!
