REVIEW OF REVUE TECHNIQUE RENAULT EXPRESS

- Patty's life is completely changed one summer when some German POV's arrive in her town. She ends up sheltering Anton, one of the prisoner, when he escapes from the POV camp. He helps give her the love that she has been denied by her parents. I believe all youth should be encourage to read this book because it deals with many issues that are face peolpe everyday, including love, self-esteem, abuse, grief, and generalizations based on nationality instead of individuality. Summer of my German Soldier is soooo good that the first time I read it I stayed up all night, in the dark, under the covers with a flashlight just to finish it. One of only maybe three books I've read in less than 24 hours and in the top 10 of the 100+ I've read. THIS BOOK IS OFF THE FIVE-STAR SCALE AND SHOULD BE ON EVERY MIDDLE-SCHOOL BOOKLIST IN AMERICA!

- Knowing I would be forced to study this work for my A Level in English Lit, I was sure I would enjoy it due to the comedy and satire involved. I was wrong. As the first reviewer claimed, The Way of the World is just like a soap opera! I appreciate the intention of Congreve was to satirise the follies of the upper classes at the time but this does not make the play any less tedious. The plot is unnecessarily complex and rather difficult to follow at times. It all boils down to romance and infidelity in the end, as one might expect. Granted, it is fairly well written, but if there's a stupid plot and irritating, useless characters, no amount of creative flair in writing can compensate. As well as that, the language, while not difficult, is different from that of modernity so makes it awkward. OK, we expect this from an 18th century piece of literature, but it still causes problems for a modern audience/reader. The worst thing was being told by the teacher when we were meant to laugh - that obviously kills any comedy value in the play. Exam boards should add some more modern plays to their syllabus! Not to mention ones with meaningful, interesting plots and characters. This is not worth the paper it's written on, in my humble opinion.
