REVIEW OF READ QBOT MANUAL REV

- I love Virginia Henley but these characters are so disconnected and unromantic. There is simply nothing endearing about any of the players in this book, in fact most of all the characters are so flawed and dark I hate to consider it a romance. Definately put this on your "if there is nothing else to read" list.

- Stress at work. Find yourself sitting in front of the television all weekend. Turning into a zombie? Been there, done that. Let me clarify this: I've never been 'up' on the Eastern arts, and until I picked up this book, I had no clue about Eastern Medicine. As a 'good Christian boy', that sounded a bit outside my realm. But, after reading Mr. Douglas' book and watching hte included DVD, I must say that I have fallen for Tai Chi and Qi-Gong 100% !!! The breathing techniques you learn early on help tremendously, especially when done daily. Now that I've read the book, I have been actively seeking a Tai Chi class here in my hometown. Easy to read and simple to follow, Mr. Douglas presents Tai Chi in a way that anyone could understand. Oh, and if you have physical limitations, DO NOT WORRY! Mr. Douglas includes information that demonstrates how you can participate in Tai Chi, too!
