REVIEW OF ENGINE TORQUE SPECS JEEP 40

- I rarely read books because I am more into TV but my cousin lent this book to me when I saw about 16 yrs old and I could not put it down, I stayed up all night for 2 nights just to finish it cause I was hooked, it has so much suspense and its very very clever. Like i said I rarely ever read books but this one I actually read twice, maybe like a year later, and if I can find it again I will definatley read it now cause its been about 10 years or so. Oh and I was so excited when the movie came out but it disappointed because it left so much out and it was not as action and suspended-packed like the book, which is usually the case I guess but it really left huge chunks out. Anyways bottom line....READ IT!
- COUNT OF MONTE CRISTO is excellent until Edmond Dantes escapes from prison and suddenly becomes Barack Obama with a sack full of cash bailing everyone out. Edmond isnt obsessed with revenge, he's an obsessed do-gooder and effeminate fop. Edmond is the omniscient (know it all), mystery man who takes years and years to accomplish his revenge. By page 500 you dont care if he does or doesnt.I'm surprised the villains didnt die of old age, and its amazing that Mercedes even remembered him.See the movie and spare yourself the tedium of reading the book.
