REVIEW OF IB GEOGRAPHY PAPER 2 NOVEMBER 2013 MARKSCHEME

- This was my first Jance novel. I enjoyed it immensely. I was surprised until the last page about "who done it" I learned some things about why people keep such large packs of pets. Jance's descriptions made me want to visit the desert. In conversation one evening to a person from the same area, I learned that her descriptions were indeed accurate. This won't be my last Jance novel. Hope the others are this good.
- The method itself is extremely interesting, unfortunately the authors repeat the same examples over and over again. Very annoying. The style borders on boring. I would recommend definitely reading the book from Savransky as a much better example of TRIZ
