REVIEW OF INTERVENTI CLINICI

- great work. my students actually introduced it to me in their bibliographies when writing about the atomic bomb. the first page will prove its worth in serious but readable historiography.
- As a few other reviewers have said, this edition (Classic House Books, paperback) is horrible. The Master and Margarita is one of my favorite books. I purchase a new copy and re-read it every few years. I purchase a new copy each time, because when I'm done I pass the book on to someone who's never read it. I decided I was due for a re-read, so I bought this. I wish I hadn't, because I'm not even going to be able to read it. The typos, byzantine punctuation and formatting are way too irritating. This book deserves to be enjoyed unreservedly. Please, read the book, if you haven't. But buy a different edition -- preferably the Mirra Ginsburg translation.
