REVIEW OF IB SAMPLE PAPERS

- Not the best workbook I have seen. It is not very interactive either. It also has a lot of references to religion.
- This is encyclopedic review and a detailed chronicle of the events surrounding the birth of nation of Israel, first as a homeland for the dispossessed and decimated Jewish masses and then eventually as a colonizing military regional superpower. It is extremely detailed and well researched. Facts and salient information is presented without much fanware and distracting analysis. I chanced upon this jewel as it was a textbook for a course on this topic at my son's college. The only shortcoming is that it ends a little short. Another print should have been attempted covering the all important Camp David talks in much more detail, rise of Sharon and Hamas, passing of Arafat, and bloody Lebanon and Gaza invasions. Revealed facts and testimony removes the veil from much of the mythology and propaganda that both sides have been busily fabricating. The Israeli author obviously has more access to the Israeli side of the events. There are very few innocents in this tragedy, but clearly, there is a lot more of their blood on the Israeli hands.
