REVIEW OF RAVE ON GLOBAL ADVENTURES IN ELECTRONIC DANCE MUSIC

- I'm not quite sure why this book got such terrible reviews...okay, so it's not extremely detailed, but what did you expect? It's for beginners, not advanced divers. I just got it as a refresher, plus it has some good information on dive sites. I recommend!

- Not just for mystery buffs, this book pleases readers of all types. Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's writing is rapidly paced and quick witted, never dull. Often, it is the characters' humour more than the suspense itself that keeps me reading. The short stories are light and entertaining, and the longer ones are thorough and satisfying. As I read, I find myself trying to put the pieces of the puzzle together, only to be outwitted in the end by the master detective. Not only does Doyle tell a good story, but he also paints a good picture of life in the 19th century, rather like Dickens, but far less depressing. A definite read for a lazy day.
