- As is usual any addendum to the Discworld series is an asset to any collection. Deaths Domain gives a whole new perspective to your imagination. You have in print what until now has only been in your minds eye. An excellent piece of work on the part of the artist and author.
- Over all a good reference book for the basics of breastfeeding. I would have liked to see more information on common feeding problems such as Reflux in infants. If just a little information would have been provided on this issue, I think I could have recognized this problem, my daughter would have gotten diagnosed sooner and not suffered so. (No information on this common feeding problem was addressed).
