REVIEW OF NOTARY LOAN SIGNING AGENT COURSE CERTIFICATION

- Jim Moore is perhaps alone in his view - not that JFK and Connally were indeed hit by the same bullet, but that they were hit at a later point in the famous Zapruder film than is commonly accepted. In fact Moore claims that JFK was hit first in the back at Z236 AFTER his arms and hands move up to his neck, but he believes that the bullet went onto strike Connally, Oswald already having fired an earlier shot at Z186. The very large problem with this scenario is that it is extremely difficult to see how a bullet could exit JFK's neck at that point and go onto strike Connally as Kennedy's hands - both hands and wrists are clearly in front of his Adams apple. And as there were no wounds to the President's hands and wrists it seems almost impossible for the bullet to go on and strike Connally at such a moment. The SBT stands, but that bullet struck JFK at an earlier point than Z236 - more likely around Z224. This rather odd theory aside, I rather like this book for its clear concise presentation of evidence. There is some conjecture, but it is one of the better No Conspiracy books on the subject. Having just re-read the book after perhaps ten years, I'd have to say its not the best by a long shot (forgive the pun) and its not as detailed as Bugliosi, but if you want a relatively short read from the Lone Nutter perspective, this would be a good start.

- Since brevity is a virtue, I will keep it short. This book is a dead on accurate assessment of the costs of materialism. It is slightly Leftist in tone, but many Conservatives such as myself practice the pursuit of Voluntary Simplicity, so don't let any of that discourage you. Excessive materialism can drive you into debt, break up your family, ruin your life, and make you as unhappy and empty as any drug addiction. Read this book.
