REVIEW OF BORN CRIME TREVOR NOAH EBOOK AQ3JV7OBOOKMSIDEAS

- Just another example of why fantasy is considered pulp, and suitable only for 11 year old social outcasts. I read this when I was twelve and found it to be childishly written and poorly conceptualized, with paper-thin trite characters to boot. Oh well. If you read this series, and still want to give fantasy a try, read "Memory Sorrow and Thorn" by tad williams. It is everything these books are not.

- Alice's adventures in wonderland and through the looking glass is a very good book for everyone of all ages. It was thrilling and adventurous. It felt like I was right there with Alice going through the adventure with her every step of the way. I would recommend this book to people of all ages not only because of it is adventures but because it had a wide variety of characters that were funny and some that you can relate to. Some of the characters are, the white rabbit the queen of hearts, the white queen, and my favorite Alice. Alice is very curious and likes to explore wonderland. Alice's adventure in wonderland and through the looking glass is a wonderful book and is full of adventure and wondering.
