REVIEW OF STEPS IN TIME FRED ASTAIRE

- Identity Crisis was a revelation. I hadn't read a comic book in awhile, but I chose this one because of the subject matter. It was highly emotional read for a comic book. The story was well drawn out, sophisticated and an interesting set up for the Infinite Crisis saga. I recommend Identity Crisis for anyone who desires their escapism to have some bite.

- the book is written in a style which mixes chronology with agenda points the author wants to make. it is difficult to follow, and a lot of the points are so general that it is difficult to relate them to a specific action the ceo (or the airline executives) took.having read this book twice now, i am at a loss to explain what this ceo really did, but maybe this is just me not knowing in general what ceos do.
