REVIEW OF SOIL STUDY GUIDE 3RD GRADE

- This is an abridged reading (about 1/4 of the original) of a very long book that is probably the most notoriously difficult thing to read in literature. This may be the best way to taste the waters. It is often said that you must hear the text in the spoken "oirish" to appreciate the music of the words. Well here you have two Irish actors very experienced in dramatic readings of Joyce. The set includes a 110 page booklet with the text of what is read out. Thus you can follow and listen simultaneously, and this may prove your key to understanding just what the book is really all about. If you are at all curious you should give it a try. A note of clarification: This set released in 2009 is marked as the "70th Anniversary Edition", the book having first been published in 1939, but this set is in fact a re-release of a recording made by Naxos in the 1990s and re-released once before in 2003.

- It's one thing to read from, another to ear to, for the curiously cautiously here's a reading worth raiding from forget about meaning and remember the sounding James Joyce read by Jim Norton[...]
