REVIEW OF PARKERS GUIDE NISSAN MICRA

- My recent reading of the Historic Novel "Alice I have been" prompted me to revisit this favorite. This is a collection of some well known poems (including "The Walrus and the Carpenter" and "The Jabberwocky") and some very un-known. My favorites lie within the verses about and reminiscent of Wonderland. Some of his other verses are heavy with political inference, and without context are difficult to enjoy. Because Charles Dodgeson was in real life a math professor, he included many puzzles in his stories. Most of these involved a play on words that the reader or listener must pay close attention to find. Check out my blog at [...] for a full review!

- It's not probably the best Java book, but is very easy for beginners, thanks for your help
