REVIEW OF INTERNATIONAL NAVIGATING CONDITIONS AREA LIMITS MAP 11TH

- I kept doggedly reading, hoping to return to the storyteller I had found in the first 4 books. Never happened. Was there an editor? Ayla's story deserves to be told without endless repetition of descriptions of scenery, introductions to characters that are never developed, and story lines that are started and then dropped without any explanation. I couldn't recommend this book to anyone.

- I love the continuing life journey of these characters! They're like old friends to me. I can always count on this book series to be interesting, educational, and to hold my attention without being dramatic or unrealistic- not that there aren't dramatic parts, because their are- but the drama in this series is based on an entire life unfolding rather than a short time span like most books are. The characters are ones I have fallen in love with.
