REVIEW OF SIMMONS MATTRESS GUIDE

- This book was lazily researched, devoid of any discipline or focus and suggested nothing more than an effort to capitalize on Rumsfeld's recent celebrity in the guise of a management book. That it was written by an editor with a major publisher is astonishing. I found it's primary value to be as a way of getting to sleep after a long day.

- This trilogy has a nice balance between the ecological and human questions it raises and a coherent, interesting story. It's hard to put down.
