REVIEW OF MITI GRECI PER BAMBINI

- Soapsuds is an entertaining book which is basically about life on a soap opera. The main character; Kate, is on Live For Tomorrow dealing with all sorts of interesting people. She moved to LA after finding her boyfriend and best friend together. She's desperately trying to get over that and move on with her life. The book reminded me a lot of the movie Soapdish because it dealt with one main person and the main characters interactions with the other people on the show. I felt that at some times there were too many people in the story which made it hard to follow. Also, I wasn't crazy about the ending because I felt that it wasn't really thought out. Even though, it was an entertaining escape from reality.

- In American history there are a great number of battles that have shaped the United States into the country we have become, the Alamo is among them. This audio recording is one of the most complete accounts of that historic event that Texas to independence. Myers take you on a journey back to the days of Jim Bowie, William Barret Travis, Davy Crockett, Sam Houston and Stephen Austin. The journey begins with the American immigration into the Mexican Territory of Texas and how the Spanish rule was law of the land. The history books fall short when recounting the exploits of the over 180 men who gave their lives in the cause of freedom, this recording gives them the just and well deserved place in the annals of history. The recording is 5 1 Hour cassettes and well worth the time to listen to each. If you want to learn what really happened in the mission turned fort spend the time and money to get this recording, you won't be disappointed. John Myers Myers is certainly the foremost expert on the subject.
