REVIEW OF ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT NOTE FOR ATMOSPHERE IGCSE BING

- Just wanted my five stars to count..ive read about 1/3 of it REALLY IN DEPTH and i mean..its probably not for you (a la mark z danielewski + also a la literary joycean snobbery). I'm going to be a joycean when I grow up. its worth looking at _definitely_ if youre interested in reading something really abstruse and yet (heres why its so good) beyond the threshold of human poignancy. Its kind of what Eco tries to do, bringing together semiotics with detective stories, but joyce's scope is much more wide. incredible.

- Yes, this book is staggeringly difficult. Yes, Joyce was a pompous, self-absorbed, pretentious butthead. Yes, he was a cynic who indulged in bitter ironies. But at the same time Joyce was also a senitmentalist and an idealist, and this magnificent novel is a successful exercise in unadulterated nostalgia. It is humble. It is funny. It is sad. It is vexing. And it contains the most sublime sentences and passages written in the English language: "On his wise shoulders through the checkerwork of leaves the sun flung spangles, dancing coins." The "Scylla and Charybdis" chapter alone is both dazzling and haunting. Shorn of the baggage (and garbage) it has accumulated over the years, Ulysses is, at its heart, a deeply moving probing of nothing less than the human heart.
