REVIEW OF THE MINDFUL INTERNATIONAL MANAGER HOW TO WORK EFFECTIVELY ACROSS CULTURES MINDFUL INTL MANAGER 2EPAPERBACK

- Imagine living in a Utopian Society that is rotten at the core. For Jonas, a 12-year-old boy, just that happens. He exists in a community with the strongest sense of conformity. Their philosophy is in the idea of sameness. They believe in this so strongly that they have removed memory, emotion, pain, and even color from their society. Jonas is chosen to become the Receiver of Memories. Everyone is so proud and confident in him, but Jonas will soon realize the corrupted community that is being controlled by. Jonas learns about emotion and freedom through an old man known as The Giver. He transfers his memories to Jonas, allowing him to experience love, pain, and joy first hand. This book is a great and easy read for the science fiction fan inside of us all. If you like the myth or folklore, it will be especially exciting. Every turn of the page holds a new twist that will leave you guessing for more. Although, if you're a big fan of solid endings, don't be upset if this book leaves you with unanswered questions. I give this book a very solid 4 out of 5.

- The Giver is an interesting drama/fantasy about a boy that gets the greatest gift ever, yet wants to never get them in the first place. The novel starts and continues well, but the near ending of the book gets sloppy and unimaginative. I do recommend this book for readers of dramatic tense, though.
