REVIEW OF MIEKO AND THE FIFTH TREASURE PDF

- This an interesting tale that pieces together the lost years of an amnesia afflicted WWI vet. Primarily told through flashback, minor characters come and go to gradually complete the puzzle of Charles Ranier's life from WWI to the onset of WWII. The editing was a little sub-par with numerous typos, but it didn't significantly impact what I thought was a very engaging plot with an excellent ending. Apparently this is the conclusion of a trilogy, but I didn't read the first two installments, so it must stand well on its own.

- This book was easy to understand, complete with pictures explaining exactly what was going on. My next migrain only took me 25 minutes to go completely away. The cure is unbelievable easy, short and affective. The price is worth it, and saves on doctors bills.
