REVIEW OF FIKIR ESKE MEKABIR AMHARIC

- Moriah is a smuggler. Her customers, the Leors will kill her if she doesn't deliver a certain shipment of highly valued ore. Problem is, her space ship has been stolen, she's been injured, she's stranded on a planet light years from help and worse yet, every wicked pirate in the quadrant is zeroing in to hijack her stolen ore shipment. Sabin is a bounty hunter. Moriah's father and Pax, the man who assaulted her and held her in slavery for years, were also bounty hunters. She's not a fan of the profession or the evil men who dash about the galaxy in their spaceships seeking the money to be had for retrieving often innocent people for the evil overlords called the "Controllers". Not realizing Sabin's true profession, Moriah stows away on Sabin's ship. Moriah is discovered when Sabin makes a covert stop to deliver relief supplies at a secret colony of Shielders. The Shielders are being hunted down and destroyed by the Controllers, so the Shielders would kill Moriah if Sabin leaves her at the secret colony world. Instead of having her executed, Sabin is forced to conceal her and then makes plans to take her to a healer to have her memories of the colony erased. Along the way, they grow to like each other. {Despite the fact SPOILER ALERT that Moriah steals Sabin's ship, and dumps him at a brothel stark naked.} There is also a delightfully humorous sub story of Lionia a warrior gal who loves to cut up men, that falls in love with the geeky space ship mechanic. This is first and foremost a science fiction romance. The characters are flawed, and deep. I LOVED them. They are like the core couple of a soap opera and they also show up in the other Shielder series books. I loved the way the author helped Moriah get around her emotional wall regarding men due to her mistreatment at the hands of the slaver and the chemistry between Sabin and Moriah fairly sizzled. This is a good stand alone novel. But go ahead and order all the Shielder books.

- I have had this book for so long it is falling apart, part of the book's poor shape has to do with repeated reading. I remember the hearse song word-for-word. The illustrations will make your skin crawl. This is a classic book.
