REVIEW OF CORREGIDORA

- This book is great, one of the best classics of all in my opinion and even kids will like it.
- "Treasure Island," written by the 19th century novelist, Robert Louis Stevenson, is the timeless story about life on the high seas with pirates, treasure, murder, and treachery. When young and naive Jim Hawkins is given a treasure map from the mysterious old pirate, Billy Bones, adventure and trouble are not far behind. Soon Jim finds himself aboard a ship with a villainous crew led by the cunning and mendacious pirate, Long John Silver. Greed and the lust for gold driving the pirates, they have murder in mind when they reach the dubious Treasure Island. Skillfully yet simply written, Robert Louis Stevenson gives us an alluring tale that sparks the imagination. With its dastardly plot and motley crew of rogues and villains, it entrances the reader, and keeps them wanting more. "Treasure Island" is the perfect read for anyone just wanting a good, exciting story.
