REVIEW OF CREATING A ROLE KONSTANTIN STANISLAVSKI EINBRUCHORE

- I read this as part of my studies but it is a beautifully set and written piece by Eliot. It is an 800 odd page book but is one that musn't be rushed, it is a book that must be savoured and lingered over as it truly is a work of art in its own right. Even if you are not a fan of literary works, this book is a must because Eliot is a genius of her age and many of her ponderings are things that even we as people of the 21st century can find relevant. I can only say read it because this book is worth the many hours of toiling, even worth the time bearing the ghastly Casaubon.

- This book was excellent! Unfortunately, our church recently went through a similar situation, so I was easily able to relate. The book was very "real" and the characters made you want to get right into the book and help them out. Five stars for sure!
