REVIEW OF TEXAS TORNADO MAP

- Received in great time, great shape and love John Piper! He is absolutely the best speaker, lover of God and tells it like it is!

- As an English teacher living in Japan, the majority of other English teachers I know prefer this book. Either that or, we're just incapable of finding a superior text living out here in the Japanese sticks. (We don't have a lot of bookstores for foreigners out here.) It is a beginner`s book, but not a beginner`s beginner`s book. Meaning, you do need to learn Hiragana and Katakana to use it. Also, you might find a very basic vocabulary necessary before you can truly utilize this text. However, once you possess these skills, this book will undoubtedly give you a solid foundation of Japanese from which to expand on. But honestly, some days I'm not sure which is more amazing: how much I've learned, or how much I still don't know.
