REVIEW OF CONTEMPORARY NUTRITION BY WARDLAW 9TH EDITION

- Thought this would be a great book but it turned my stomach very quickly! I stopped reading as soon as I realized child molestation was about to happen!!! Thankful it was free & I've deleted it quickly!
- Barry Oshry maintains that we all live in systems that inevitably shape our understanding of the world and our relationship to it. If you haven't noticed a system encircling you, look again at your socioeconomic group, which governs you in far more ways than you suspect. To teach power, leadership, and systems, Oshry runs an experiential program in which participants totally immerse themselves in an "assigned" system, usually by living and working in a particular socioeconomic realm (as in "Who Wants to be a Millionaire" or a pauper). He has taught this "Power Lab" for thirty years. In this book, Oshry looks at human systems and at lessons from the Power Lab experiences. His insights are casually written, but well crafted. We [...] recommend this fascinating, insightful book to anyone interested in power, leadership, human systems, and sociology.
