REVIEW OF PRENTICE HALL CHEMISTRY CHAPTER

- I have read two of his books and am convinced he has no writing skills and his popular science books are just science fiction. There is no attempt to explain hard science principles in layman terms. The books are just chatter and after two chapters I am putting all his books in the "white elephant christmas party" gift wraps of our department!
- I found the 2006 Almanac excellent and full of information. It is a must for the office desk
