REVIEW OF CUNY PLACEMENT TEST STUDY GUIDE

- If you are at all interested in the events leading up to and during the 1916 Easter Rising, (and don't particularly like to read conventional history books) - then this is the book for you. It's excellent. You will be immersed in the whole affair, become well acquainted with the brave leaders, and most importantly you'll understand the events that led up to Easter rising, the rising itself and the importance of it all in the Irish getting their independence from Britain. The only bad thing (and it's minor) is the little fictitious story set in NY, that's going on in the background - it's not necessary. Other than that this is a GREAT read.

- Emma Holly's Story: 'The Countesses's Pleasure', the heroine Georgiana DuBarry hooks up with an indentured demon, Sawai. Recently widowed, Georgiana hires Sawai to deflower her after a sexless marriage.***Could be spoilers...but was trying to list what they were about***In Leigh's story, 'The Breed Next Door', Tarek Jordan is a member of the Feline Breed on an undercover stakeout. His neighbor next door is Lyra, who is sweet, bakes, and he thinks is hot. Soon, trouble comes to her house and he is put in the position to take care of her. Neither can fight the attraction when in close quarters. I'm assuming you can guess how the rest of this goes. ;o)Meljean Brook's: 'Falling for Anthony' is the story of a young doctor who is granted the opportunity to come back from the dead as a Guardian, to help the sister of his childhood friend recover from a vampire's bite.Shiloh Walker's: 'The Blood Kiss' is the battle between werewolves and vampires. The prize, Julianna Capriet is the daughter of the Vampire King...but her heart belongs to Roman, the Wolf King.Out of the four stories...Lora Leigh's story was my favorite (of course, I love the breeds). I'd say Shiloh Walker's was my next favorite one. I liked the premise even though I'm not sure I've read much from her.It was the first time I'd read Emma Holly or Meljean Brooks. Seemed to be well-written, but I was just not really very into the stories. The premise wasn't of much interest and neither pulled me in.
